An outbreak of 250,000 cases died at the Northern end of Great Salt Lake in 1932 from ~~Botulism~~ Botulism. It is a bacterial poisoning, not an infection + may live dormant, in glass, Gusel has frequent matches Blood parasites - spores - must enter body thru lungs, nose + eyes - spread with respiratory droplets

DEFENSE SUPPLIES CORPORATION
WASHINGTON, D. C.